

SAMPLE ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrive in Siem Reap; the charming gateway to the famed Temples of Angkor

Day 2: Siem Reap – Visit the incredible temples of Angkor Wat, and enjoy a sunset cruise accompanied by Sounds of Angkor, a unique troupe who use reconstructed ancient musical instruments.

Day 3: Siem Reap – Visit our arts center inside the grounds of Wat Bo, and watch one of Sounds of Angkor's rehearsals. Then learn some arts yourself with an interactive shadow puppet workshop. Visit the gallery of John McDermott before spending the afternoon at leisure. In the evening watch a Large Shadow Puppet performance at Wat Bo performed in the traditional manner, with a white screen illuminated by a bonfire of coconut shells.

Day 4: Siem Reap – Take a boat trip on the Tonle Sap lake and see fish farms and floating villages, before spending the afternoon at Artisans d'Angkor, an NGO that teaches traditional craftsmanship to young adults. In the evening enjoy Phare, The Cambodian Circus' unique performance, which tells a Cambodian story through a mix of traditional modern theater, music, dance, acrobatics, juggling and contortion.

Day 5: Siem Reap – Enjoy the sunrise at Bakon Temple before visiting the city's Old Market and sampling some of the region's delicacies, including seafood, regional sausages, and traditional desserts. Later, visit Bantey Srei temple after enjoying a lunch in a traditional wooden house.

Day 6: Siem Reap to Phnom Penh – After flying to Cambodia's capital city, meet Arn Chorn-Pond, founder of Cambodian Living Arts, and some local musicians. Have dinner together while cruising on the Mekong River.

Day 7: Phnom Penh – After a morning at leisure, visit a shadow puppet maker at this home and workshop. In the evening, enjoy our Traditional Dance show in the grounds of the National Museum.
